It's Time for a Change	15

Greetings, Lebanon Campus!

Education is seeing a lot of change. Change is occurring in our demographics, our programs, interactions, expectations and responsibilities. It is an exciting time to be at HACC during this change, especially at the Lebanon Campus. Our roots were grounded in the community over 25 years ago and are still strong today. As we grow and provide more opportunities, we need to work together more than ever to be advocates for the exceptional work we are providing the community. I hope that every time you are asked about your career you take time to celebrate the amazing colleagues you work with every day and share the great work we are doing.

We will have a plethora of opportunities this semester to celebrate the great work being done here in Lebanon including our CITE programs, cultural diversity programming, Day of Giving, guest artist lecture and student appreciation days. Celebrate with us by attending events, getting involved and being a part of the change, growth and amazing things happening at the campus!

Lebanon Campus Update

Welcome to Lebanon!

Santos Robles is thrilled to be back at HACC's Lebanon Campus in his position as an enrollment services specialist in the Welcome Center. He graduated from HACC in 2015, with an Associate degree in Social Sciences. Santos is an Army veteran and attended HACC using his GI Bill. While here, Santos was a student worker in the Lebanon Campus VA department. Prior to returning, he was a Day Treatment Specialist for Youth Advocate Programs, working with at-risk youth and getting them integrated into the community.

Santos has four children, ages 9, 6 and 2 (twins). In his spare time, he likes to enjoy root beer floats and watch movies with his kids.

The next time you are in the Welcome Center, introduce yourself to Santos!

Christy Ramos is very pleased to serve HACC students and alumni in her new role as a Career Advisor at the Lebanon Campus, in Room 104C. She has worked in business, marketing, and education. Having received her B.S. in Business Administration with an emphasis in Marketing and her M.A. in School Counseling, Christy is a Nationally Certified Counselor and a Pennsylvania State Certified School Counselor. With solid experience in business and school counseling, she will be an asset to students in all aspects of career development. Christy will also develop and foster relationships with businesses, community organizations, and employers to cultivate opportunities for HACC students and alumni.

Christy was raised in California, lived in Austin, Texas, and is happy to call Lebanon home for the past 13 years. She lives with her husband and middle school daughter and has two sons finishing college. Christy enjoys time with family, entertaining, her long-standing book club crew, playing games, cooking, being with friends, and plans to get back into golf again this year. Welcome, Christy!

Miriam Gonzalez is super excited for the opportunity to be the new admissions counselor for the Lebanon Campus. She was previously a Welcome Center specialist at the Lancaster Campus for over three years.

Miriam lives in Ephrata with her husband and their dog, Lilo. She enjoys sports, movies and superheroes. When you have a chance, Miriam welcomes a visit from you. Please stop by her office at 104D and say hello!

Twas the Night before Finals

Twas the Night before Finals

Our final tasks are set before us
All while the Yuletide fast approaches
A storm is coming, but never fear
Supporting each other, we've got this!

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

- Dec 4 - Here Comes Santa Claus
- Dec 5 - Make & Take an Ornament
- Dec 6 - Study with Santa
- Dec 7 - Carols & Caffeine

- Dec 11 - Top-Your-Own Hot Chocolate Bar
- Dec 12 - Candy Canes of Kindness
- Dec 13 - Milk & Cookies
- Dec 14 - Ugly Sweater Day

Twas the night before finals... and all through the campus, we were busy keeping spirits high and stress low! In an attempt to quell nerves and exhaustion, the Student Development and Multicultural Programs department hosted daily events for students studying hard at the end of the semester.

Here Comes Santa Claus

Make & Take an Ornament

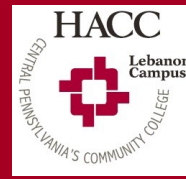

Milk & Cookies

Students were given the opportunity to enter a drawing each day for a chance to win a free iPad Mini. The lucky winners were Oneisha Perez, Nicole Good and Elizabeth Burkholder. The initiative was met with much support, and we look forward to creatively supporting students through the end of each semester in the future.

Holiday fun!

Staff and faculty enjoyed celebrating the holidays together on Dec. 13. Our party was held in a private room at a local restaurant, the Foundry Craft Grillery, and we were thrilled to have one of our retirees, Barb Grandia, join us for the evening!

Thanks to everyone who bought tickets for the basket raffle held to benefit the Campus Emergency Assistance Fund.

News from Career Services

It was our pleasure to visit Hershey Entertainment and Resorts during the fall 2017 semester. In an effort to continue Career Services' Careers on Tour program, we connected with a company "in our own backyard" which also has global presence. While the tour was open to any interested student on either the Lebanon or Harrisburg campuses, we specifically focused on students enrolled in a Marketing course. Our goal was to provide students an opportunity to see marketing "in the real world."

After a presentation on the Hershey brand and culture, we discussed internships. As Hershey is currently redeveloping their internship program, they have looked to HACC to aid in shaping it well. We took a tour of their offices located on the second floor of the Hershey Press building. The building, built in 1916, originally housed Milton Hershey's Chocolate Company's printing presses.

Broadening the horizons of students developing their personal and professional life goals is exciting! Our visit to Hershey certainly afforded students the chance to better understand specific opportunities within the world of business. The trip supported learning objectives of the marketing class and made some of them "come to life" in a new way. We are grateful for the collaboration with Hershey and look forward to similar tours within the Lebanon Valley in the future!

Delayed openings & closures

As the cold weather is now upon us, it is good to be reminded of the changes for delayed openings due to inclement weather. In the event of a delayed opening, classes will start at 10:00 am and staff are to report at 9:30 am. More information regarding the 2018 weather delays/closings can be found on the following webpage: http://www.hacc.edu/Students/CollegeCalendars/Weather/index.cfm?cssearch=431857_1

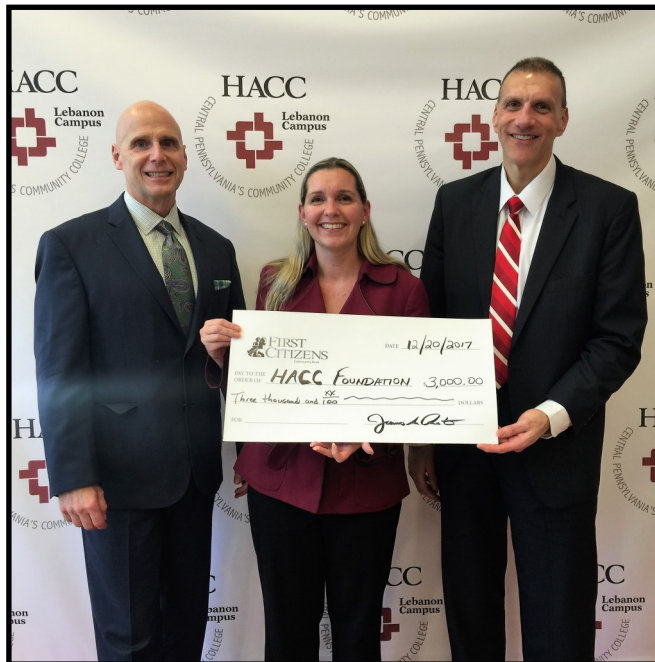

Also, if you have not already done so, please register for e2campus and/or review your preferences so that any notifications regarding delays or closings are sent to you.

First Citizens Bank helps students reach their goals

On Dec. 21, 2017, James Rovito, regional president, First Citizens Community Bank (far right in photo at left), presented Dr. Ski and Laurie Bowersox with a generous donation to the HACC Foundation Educational Improvement Fund, to be used for HACC’s approved innovative educational programs as part of the Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) program.

The gift will support HACC’s College in the High School program for talented high-school students who want to get a jumpstart on their college education. By allowing these students to earn college credits while still in high school, this donation helps families to save on college expenses.

HACC Foundation seeks qualified applicants to serve on its Board of Directors

The HACC Foundation, a nonprofit educational trust established in 1985 to raise private and corporate revenues in support of HACC, is seeking professional, ethical, knowledgeable and hard-working individuals to join its Board of Directors.

The Board raises funds for the College, directs the business and financial affairs and serves as the policy-making body of the HACC Foundation. The Board is comprised of corporate and community leaders who are committed to raising funds for and awareness of HACC and its students, programs and facilities.

Qualified individuals are encouraged to apply for membership on the HACC Foundation Board. Applications are accepted any time and should be submitted using an online application.

To see why others enjoy serving on the HACC Foundation Board, please view these photographs.

New Cafe at the Lebanon Campus!

A ribbon cutting ceremony was held on Jan. 10 to launch the partnership between Quest, Inc. and HACC to provide food service to our students, staff and community. Many community leaders and local elected officials attended the ceremony.

Quest, Inc. (QUality Employment Services and TRaining, Inc.) offers options for people with disabilities that include specialized occupational training, extended work in the industrial training facility, job placement and employment services, and employment opportunities for people with disabilities.

QUEST has become a major provider of vocational programs and services for residents of the Lebanon County area. Quest, Inc., is a licensed vocational rehabilitation agency licensed by the Department of Public Welfare 2390 Regulations for Vocational Facilities. As a Community Benefit agency, Quest, Inc., is a member agency of the United Way of Lebanon County.

Quest Café is currently open:

Monday through Thursday - 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m., and 4 to 7 p.m.

Friday - 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Each week they will offer two soups. White chicken chili will be available along with a featured soup for the week. In addition to made-from-scratch soups, the café offers salads, flat bread pizza, panini sandwiches and a variety of other snacks. They are listening to requests and will be expanding their offerings frequently. In the upcoming weeks, you will see additional flavored syrups for coffee and new menu items as specials for the day or week.

If you would like to order lunch for a large group, pre-order and they will have it ready for pickup when you need it. You can also pick up a quart of soup to go for just $10.

Stop by the café to welcome our new partners and enjoy some delicious food!

Campus Day

The Lebanon Campus Day event was held on the evening of Wednesday, Jan. 10. Like every semester, this event serves as the official kick-off to the new semester. Participants in this year's event enjoyed a variety of delicious potluck meals, as well as a few laughs and some engaging conversation.

The welcome address from Laurie Bowersox was followed by a presentation from our Center for Innovation and Teaching Excellence (CITE). Dr. Margo Boman (Math), CITE coordinator at the Lebanon Campus, discussed the mission of the CITE team and previewed possible CITE offerings for Spring 2018. Finally, the evening was capped off by an informative presentation related to campus security, led by Bryan Hess, lead Security Officer for the Lebanon Campus. Overall, the evening proved to be a pleasant beginning to the new semester.

Security officers Bryan Hess (left) and James Conard provide valuable information regarding services provided by the Campus Department of Public Safety and Security.

Rising Stars!

Rising Star, the academic awards program that recognizes students who do well in initial developmental classes, had its largest class of honorees during a ceremony held on Jan. 25.

Students who achieve at least a B in Reading 001 or 002 and at least a B average overall are awarded certificates and recognition for their efforts. These students were recognized for their efforts in Fall '17.

A total of 23 students were awarded Rising Star status, given after completion of one successful semester in the program. One student was given Shooting Star status, awarded after two consecutive semesters in the program.

“We’re excited about the number of students who are honored through this program,” said Annette Damato-Beamesderfer, coordinator of the event and director of the campus Tutoring Center. “Each year it grows a little bit bigger, and that’s a testament to our hard-working students and their instructors.”

The program has been in place at the Lebanon campus for eight years.

It's Time for a Change

The Office of College Advancement has developed NEW templates for you to use for YOUR on-campus communications.

The templates empower you to communicate with HACC students and employees using the same branding as the College's external marketing pieces. Photography can be changed and text can be edited to communicate your specific message.

New templates designs include brochures, flyers, posters, newsletters, campus video screens and a PowerPoint presentation.

In addition to supplying new templates, hundreds of new icons have been created for you to use:

<https://www.flickr.com/gp/hacc/s9F9z1>

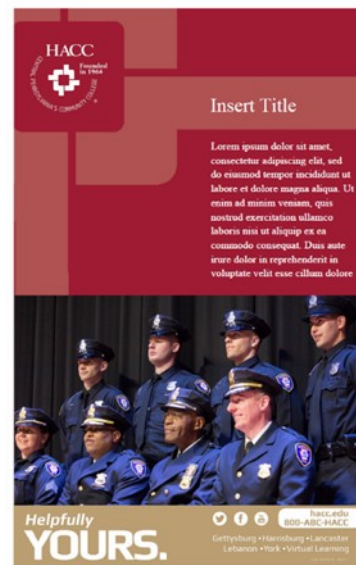

What is the benefit of using an icon?

40% of readers respond better to visual information than plain text. Therefore, consider using an icon to visually communicate a statistic instead of wording.

Please remember that all requests for off-campus pieces (brochures, posters, flyers, etc.) should be submitted via a communications hub request. The templates are not to be used off campus or online.

Enjoy using the new template designs! Please email IMCprojects@hacc.edu with any questions. Thank you!

Visually YOURS.
