Greetings, HACC student!

Please participate in our #HACCtogether campaign no later than April 28. Information about how to submit a testimonial, photo and/or video is available at hacc.edu/HACCtogether. You may receive a $100 Visa gift card just by sharing some words of inspiration!

Below are two motivational quotes shared by HACC students – I hope they give you a bit of extra energy to get through the week.

“Stay focused and stay passionate about your life and career goals because this will all be over one day and you’ll still be headed in the right direction!!” – Mackenzie

“We stand together as one and always will.” – Kathryn

As you have come to expect, following are the commonly asked questions and our responses to them. Please note that some of these responses are tentative and subject to change.

If you have additional questions, and you do not see the answers on the website, please submit the online form located on the website. Please see the webpage section called “Information for Students.”

We will continue to update you regularly via email and the aforementioned website.

Thank you!

1. What resources are available to support HACC students in need?

HACC students can access a wide range of services from HACC’s website, HACC’s student wellness page and the United Way 211 portal at uwp.org/211gethelp/.

The 211 link includes resources for food and housing insecurities, financial assistance and other needs available through the United Way.

Additionally, as the result of our partnership with Mazzitti & Sullivan, there is a robust set of mental health and wellness resources available through their website that complements their counseling services. Students can access the resources by signing in using the access code: HAC CSTU.

2. With the campuses closed, how will students return textbooks to the bookstore for textbook buyback?

Until the campus bookstore locations reopen, students can sell unwanted textbooks online. This includes all printed textbooks that were purchased. It does not include rented textbooks. Please follow the guidelines at https://bookstore.hacc.edu/harrisburg/sell_main.asp

When the campus bookstore locations reopen, students will be able to sell their textbooks back for cash at the bookstores.
